Modesto, California - Stanislaus County District Attorney Birgit Fladager announced today that Glenn Gary, age 60, was found unsuitable for parole at a May 30th hearing of the State Board of Prison Terms conducted at Folsom State Prison. Deputy District Attorney Doug Maner appeared at the hearing and argued for continued confinement based upon the cruel and vicious nature of the crime, lack of remorse and inadequate parole plans. Gary was president of an outlaw biker gang known as the Barhoppers. He lured a rival from another gang to his home with the promise of drugs, then kidnapped him, took him to an orchard, beat him and shot him twice in the head. He later bragged about the killing to fellow gang members and was proud of the fact that he killed the victim with the victim's gun.

Gary was convicted of murder in the first degree with a gun enhancement in 1982. Gary is serving a twenty-seven-year-to-life sentence and has previously been denied parole five times. He will be scheduled for another hearing in one year.
