Modesto, California - Stanislaus County District Attorney Birgit Fladager announced today that Roosevelt Stallworth entered a guilty plea to one count of felony theft, one count of attempted possession of heroin and admitted that he had suffered two prior felony convictions.

The felony theft arose from an incident on September 18, 2008 in the city of Modesto when Stallworth took merchandise from Kohl's department store without paying. While the charges from that event were pending and Mr. Stallworth was out of custody, he committed a new law violation when he attempted to buy heroin from an undercover officer on October 4, 2008.

Upon the entry of his guilty plea, Stallworth was sentenced by the Honorable Donald N. Shaver to two years and four months in state prison.
