Modesto, California - Stanislaus County District Attorney Birgit Fladager announced today that Javier Augusto Quinteros, age 35, of Riverbank was convicted of four felony counts of sexual assault including two counts of Continuous Sexual Abuse of a child, one count of Sodomy and one count of Oral Copulation of a child under 14 years of age, following a four-week jury trial that began June 12, 2014. Deputy District Attorney Annette Rees prosecuted the case for the People.

Quinteros molested two step-children who resided with him from 2003 through 2010. Quinteros was arrested on March 8, 2010 after the younger of the two victims disclosed to her mother what Quinteros was doing to her. Testimony at the trial included DNA findings as well as medical evidence of genital scarring on both girls.

Deputy District Attorney Rees noted that “the victims in this case are very grateful to the jury who took so much time out of their own lives to listen carefully and find the truth.”

Quinteros is facing a potential sentence of 38 years to life. Two of the counts for which Quinteros has been convicted are serious and violent felonies. He will be a lifetime sex registrant and eligible for three strikes sentencing in the future, as well as lifetime commitment as a Sexually Violent Predator. Sentencing and victim impact statements are scheduled for August 25, 2014.
