Modesto, California – Stanislaus County District Attorney Birgit Fladager announced today that Esteban Loredo, age 45, of Turlock, was sentenced to three years and four months to state prison on September 26, 2008 after he pled to one count of possession of stolen property. In addition, Loredo admitted to a violation of his probation in a case in which he had entered a plea of guilty to Possession of Methamphetamine and had admitted having two prior prison commitments. Deputy District Attorney Carolyn Matzger prosecuted the case for the People.

Loredo had been placed on felony probation for two cases, both for possession of methamphetamine. He was referred to treatment pursuant to Proposition 36. He had violated the terms of his probation by failing to report to Probation as ordered, failing to complete substance abuse treatment, failing to register as a controlled substance offender and failing to complete AIDS education classes. In addition, he committed the new offense of possession of stolen property.
