Modesto, California - Stanislaus County District Attorney Birgit Fladager announced today that Edward Levi Tudor, age 51, was remanded on October 1, 2008 to serve two years and eight months in state prison following his admission to a violation of probation. On September 21, 2006, Tudor pled guilty to possession of methamphetamine and admitted that he had a prior conviction for a serious felony. He was placed on probation and ordered to complete substance abuse treatment pursuant to proposition 36. On August 13, 2008 Tudor admitted a violation of probation for a second time for failing to complete treatment. He was sentenced to state prison but allowed to remain out of custody until October 1, 2008 when the Honorable Susan Siefken remanded him to custody to serve out his sentence.
