Gets Man Two Years in Prison

Modesto, California - Stanislaus County District Attorney Birgit Fladager announced today that on December 24, 2008, Grady Womack, age 38, of Modesto, was found in violation of probation after a contested hearing before the Honorable Scott Steffen. Womack had failed to report to probation and failed to provide notification to probation as to his current residence address.

Womack was originally convicted on June 25, 2007 of Auto Theft. At that time, he was sentenced to 2 years state prison which was suspended and he was placed on three years felony probation.

After being found in violation of probation, the Honorable Scott Steffen sentenced Womack to the previously suspended prison term of two years.
