Modesto, California - Stanislaus County District Attorney Birgit Fladager announced today that Dani Hana, age 21, of Turlock, was convicted on June 23, 2009 of robbery in the first degree and admitted to being present during the commission of the crime with a co-defendant who was armed with a firearm. Deputy District attorney John Baker prosecuted the case for the People.

The case arose out of events which occurred on September 29, 2008 in the city of Turlock. Hana entered a home with another person (Antonio Mejia, age 21) and robbed the occupants of various family heirlooms, gold coins and a shotgun. Hana and the other person were apprehended later that day by Turlock Police. Mejia is currently in custody charged with kidnapping for purposes of robbery, assault, grand theft of a firearm and being personally armed with a weapon during the course of these felonies.

Upon the entry of the no contest plea, the Honorable Timothy Salter sentenced. Hana to four years in state prison.
