Modesto, California - Stanislaus County District Attorney Birgit Fladager announced today the following violations of probation that resulted in state prison sentences:

Stormy Farmer, age 32, of Modesto, admitted she violated the terms of her probation by failing to report to the probation department as directed, and for failing to keep the probation department advised of her current address. Farmer was originally convicted on August 9, 2006 of the crime of possession of a controlled substance for purposes of sale. She was placed on three years formal felony probation. This was Farmer's third violation of probation. Upon the admission, the Honorable Scott Steffen sentenced Farmer to three years in state prison.

Carolyn Myartt, age 38, of Modesto, admitted she violated the terms of her probation by failing to report to the probation department as directed and for failing to keep the probation department advised of her current address. Myartt was convicted of the crime of sale of a controlled substance on November 17, 2006, and placed on three years felony probation. This was her second violation of probation. Upon the admission, the Honorable Scott Steffen sentenced Myartt to three years in state prison.
