Modesto, California - Stanislaus County District Attorney Birgit Fladager announced today that Martin Guillory, age 50, of Modesto, was found unsuitable for parole at a February 2, 2010 hearing of the State Board of Prison Hearings at Soledad, California. Deputy District Attorney Richard Gore appeared at the hearing and argued against parole based on the danger Guillory would pose to the public safety should he be release into the community. The Board of Prison Hearings agreed and denied parole for a period of three years.

Guillory was convicted of the January 1988 murder of his wife, Joann Guillory. He is serving out a 16 year to life prison sentence. This was his fifth parole hearing. Guillory will be scheduled for another hearing in 2013.
