Modesto, California - Stanislaus County District Attorney Birgit Fladager announced today that Mickensy Oliveira of Oakdale, age 35, was convicted of felony driving at a .08% or above alcohol level causing injury. Oliveira also admitted enhancements for inflicting great bodily injury on two victims, having served a prior prison term, and having been convicted of DUI convictions twice before.

On October 27, 2011, at about 9:50 p.m., Oliveira was driving her car west on Patterson Road in Riverbank about 100 yards from Oakdale Road when she crossed over into the oncoming lane of traffic and hit another car head-on, injuring all four people inside the other car, two of them severely. Oliveira's blood-alcohol level was found to be .28%.

In addition to the DUI case, Oliveira was also convicted of a felony assault charge stemming from a December 10, 2011 bar fight at the Running Iron bar on McHenry Avenue in Modesto and a misdemeanor driving at .08% or above alcohol level on August 26, 2011.

Upon entry of no contest pleas to all three cases, the Judge Ricardo Cordova sentenced Oliveira to nine years in state prison.

Deputy District Attorney Tony Colacito prosecuted the case for the People. His position is funded by a grant provided by the Office of Traffic Safety.
