Modesto, California - Stanislaus County District Attorney Birgit Fladager announced today that Anastacio Rosales, age 44, of Turlock has been sentenced to sixteen months in state prison for felony driving under the influence of alcohol.

On February 2, 2016, at about 4:24 p.m., Rosales caused a rear-end traffic wreck on Geer Road north of Whitmore Ave. California Highway Patrol officers investigating the crash arrested Rosales for driving under the influence of alcohol. A blood test measured his alcohol content to be .29%, over three times the legal limit of .08%. At the time of the crash, Rosales was already on felony probation from 2013 for having four drunk driving convictions.

On April 22, 2016, Rosales pled guilty to felony drunk driving before Judge Marie Silveira. He also admitted violating his probation from the previous 2013 felony conviction. Judge Silveira sentenced him to sixteen months in state prison on the new case, and to a concurrent sixteen month prison term on the probation case.

This case was prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Anthony Colacito working under a grant funded by the California Office of Traffic Safety through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.
